Keeping Perspective: Australia's boat arrivals

(re-compiled by Project SafeCom 2009-12)

"The first boat arrived in Darwin in April 1976 carrying five Indochinese men. Over the next five years there were 2059 Vietnamese boat arrivals with the last arriving in August 1981. The arrival of 27 Indochinese asylum seekers in November 1989 heralded the beginning of the second wave".

1. Boat numbers 1976-1981

The number of boats between 1976 and 1981 is ambiguous. Betts (footnote 2) and Phillips & Spinks only show passenger numbers; Andreas Schoenhardt (footnote 4) puts the number (between 1976 and 1978) at 55 boats, and Fraser's Immigration Minister Ian Macphee tells the House of Representatives on May 1, 1980 that 53 boats have arrived since 1976.

2. The years 2001-2004: Howard did not stop the boats $\,$

Possum Comitatus (footnote 5) explains, that "The Pacific Solution ... diddled the stats by redefinition. Boats still made the attempt to enter Australia ... yet we know that SIEV(s) 5, 7, 11 and 12 in 2002 attempted to make the journey and were returned to Indonesia while SIEV(s) 4, 6 and 10 actually sank. That was in very late 2001 through late 2002. In 2003 we know that boats were still attempting to make the voyage such as SIEV 14, but were again towed back from whence they came. The UNHCR estimates that 1600 people were diverted throughout the time of the Pacific Solution, but hard numbers are difficult to come by." Additionally, during 2002 two boats attempted to sail directly to New Zealand from Indonesia; one boat is presumed to have foundered with 34 passengers, a second one was stopped in Dili. In 2004 another boat attempted this journey<sup>3</sup>.

2. Stats from Oct 2009

From Oct 2009 data are compiled from media reports and Immigration Department & Minister for Home Affairs media releases. Numbers of arrivals do not include crew: only passengers are counted.

Annual boat arrivals in Australian waters 2012

2012 proved to be an extraordinary year for boat arrivals. An annual record number of boats arrived; The Gillard Labor government initiated extraordinary and extremely punitive laws approving offshore processing on Nauru and Manus Island (PNG); it 'excised' the entire country for migration purposes -- but the boats kept coming, and the daily, weekly or monthly arrival frequency even increased since these laws were passed.

On November 25, 2012 Immigration Minister Chris Bowen announced that boat arrival numbers were such that he would release many asylum seekers into the Australian community on Bridging Visas – without work rights – while others would be "deported" for processing to Nauru and Manus Island. However, under pressure the Minister's work ban for Bridging Visa holders in this category was 'softened'.
